

Educational Literature:

The American Dental Association (ADA) publishes a variety of patient education brochures that can be used to support your recommendations and instructions. The brochures offer full color photos with step-by-step instructions and easy to read text. Many of the brochures are offered in English and Spanish. You can obtain a copy of the ADA catalog by calling (800) 947-4746. You may also order from their online catalog at <http://www.ada.org>.

Special Offer:

The ADA is currently offering an educational guidebook and 30-minute DVD, in Spanish and English, regarding the importance of good oral health care. The literature is titled “¡Sonrisa! A Guide to Dental Health for Hispanic Americans.” The educational materials cover basic questions about dental health for children, cavities, gum disease and other oral health problems. You may view a brief promotional excerpt at <http://www.ada.org/public/media/videos/index.asp>. You may also order a copy of the DVA and guidebook by calling (800) 223-0182.
